Grieving with Intention Workshop Series

Finding Meaning: A Book Discussion

The Goldstein Family Grief Center is excited to host a book discussion led by M.E. Steele-Pierce, PhD, a retired school administrator and current Hospice of Cincinnati Peer Support Volunteer. M.E. will be sharing her grief experience following the death of her husband, Bob, in 2020 and leading an interactive discussion of David Kessler's book, Finding Meaning: The Sixth Stage of Grief. This program will be held over the course of two weeks. Copies of the book will be provided at the first session, along with a reader's guide.

Wednesdays, June 14 & June 28 from 6:30-8:00pm
6:30-8:00

Hospice of Cincinnati, Administrative Bldg.
4360 Cooper Road
Cincinnati, OH 45213

* This program will be capped at 25 participants.
