Annual Performance Appraisals in Oracle: A Guide for Team Members

The TriHealth annual performance appraisal process is critical to delivering on our TriHealth brand promise that all team members are seen, heard and valued. As you and your leader prepare for this important discussion, you are encouraged to take the time to complete your annual self-evaluation by November 16, 2023.

While self-evaluations are voluntary, you are strongly encouraged to take the time to provide your leader with input on how you have performed over the past year, providing not only ratings, but also specific examples of how you demonstrated SERVE, Always Behaviors and how you deliver on your job responsibilities.

Note that your leader may require you to complete the Self-Appraisal.
